

Top 10 New Restaurants of 2006

By Neha Shah, Citysearch Contributor

What were the top new dining spots this year? Make reservations at the hottest restaurants that opened in 2006, read users' opinions and create your own list to share.

On This Page: The Top 10, More of the

Triangle's Top Restaurants

The Top 10

1. Bonne Soiree
421 W Franklin St, Chapel Hill, NC
This European restaurant only has capacity for 32 people a night, so enjoy the seclusion if you can get a table.

2. 18 Seaboard | Website
18 Seaboard Ave Ste 100, Raleigh, NC
Contemporary, airy space and a fun, upscale ambiance set the scene for a meal made from local ingredients.

3. Panciuto
110 S Churton St, Hillsborough, NC
Hometown flavor with upscale flair, and just the right balance of healthy and utterly delectable offerings in a quiet neighborhood setting.

4. The Old Granary Restaurant and Bar
2000 Fearington Village Center, Pittsboro, NC
The essence of genteel Southern traditions, mixed with Carolina casual simplicity, are found at this hidden favorite.

5. Vivace | Website
4209 Lassiter Mill Road Suite 115, Raleigh, NC
Chic midtown trattoria serves up seasonal Italian dishes.

6. Azitra Indian Fare | Website
8411 Brier Creek Pkwy Ste 101, Raleigh, NC
Contemporary bistro specializes in traditional Indian cuisine, including tandoori and tikka masala, served in a romantic, blue-color-schemed setting.

7. Jibarra | Website
7420 Six Forks Rd, Raleigh, NC
Fresh, creative worldly flavors and a feisty tequila watering hole redefine authentic Mexican dining.

8. Brasa Steakhouse
8551 Brier Creek Pkwy, Raleigh, NC
Brazilian-style steakhouse in North Raleigh's Brier Creek serves up a bottomless protein feast

